Tim Hayes named Director of Client Services at McLellan Marketing Group

Des Moines, IA – April 15, 2009 - McLellan Marketing Group (MMG) is pleased to announce the promotion of Tim Hayes to Director of Client Services. Hayes has been with the company since 1997 and has been a leader in growing the agency's client roster as well as serving as the team leader on many of the agency's accounts.

“Tim's passion for genuinely serving our clients, growing their business and honoring their trust has been a staple at MMG for 12 years now. He's more than earned the right to lead our client services team and to help all of them reach his level of excellence. I feel very fortunate to have him take this leadership role,” said Drew McLellan, the agency's founder and Top Dog.

Hayes has a bachelor's degree from Hastings College in Hastings, Nebraska.

McLellan Marketing Group is a full-service marketing agency specializing in helping clients discover their story so they can create love affairs with their customers.
